

Hence, if we would continue to live and experience the graduated business of the past, the future generations must possess and emulate the sterling qualities of those who fought before—namely: industry, integrity, confidence, fair dealing, justice and faith in God. Further, if we would continue this good day, let us see to it that the Bolshevick, the Lenin, the Trotsky has no standing among us, nor, no influence in our state or national legislative halls of justice.

It will be fifty years before the

The quickest way to get your work done is to start at it today.

Britain and Russia are saying harsh things to each other again.

Our idea of a foolish question: "What is my bank balance today?"

Any insurance agent can tell you that a dead man is worth more than a live one.

The sweet young things never give up hope; they know that they will win some day.

Bankers in agricultural communities are earning their salaries by keeping the doors open.

It cost Doheny more than $10,000,000 to find out that fraud and corruption doesn't pay.

Thousands of 14-year-old Ty Cobbs will begin to cavort on the diamonds this spring.

Any pessimist can be cured by reading the reports that come from the spring training camps.

Some people get very excited when the fire bell rings; wonder what they'll do when they die?

Correct this sentence: "I don't care to be bothered with the responsibility of a large income."

The president may plan to spend his vacation in the middle west, but it won't be on an honest to goodness farm.

Somebody said the other day that the girls are better looking than ever. Well, we do see more of 'em.

The Federal Reserve Board reports that 1926 was unusually stable. Farmers say that the noise you hear is a horse laugh.

Aviation may be in its infancy but the Curtis company made $413,316 in 1926. This is our idea of a healthy infant industry.

A disgruntled client last week in New York shot at his lawyer. The general adoption of this custom might help justice.

The annual contest between the suburban gardener and the poultry fancier will begin soon. Betting odds are 5 to 1 on the hens.

So far as we know no bank has yet started to use a bookkeeping system which will tally with the customer's check-stub balance.

Our extra slice of pie for this week is awarded to the reader who believes half of the official statements that diplomats write.

Chinese generals are showing signs of civilization. Chang Tso-lin is executing a group of Russians for plotting against his government.

Advertisers will find The Echo a good medium by which to reach the public. Our subscribers include the people who have money to buy.

Briand plans to spend seven billion francs fortifying France's eastern frontier. The motto seems to be "millions for defense but not one franc for interest."

Time changes many things. Here we see the President of the United States felicitating the Germans for building a direct cable to this country. Ten years ago it would have been another source of propaganda.

Our extra slice of pie for this week is awarded the boob who stood in our open doorway last week and talked to us during a cold snap, while we sneezed loud and often.

A first class boxing match attracts almost as much attention as a presidential election; if there was as much patronage connected with the sporting event it would attract more attention.

New York, the home of the free and licentious, is about to have a stage censorship. The shows got so rotten that even the stage folks saw that something was bound to happen.

Well, we always hope for the best, but there are some subscribers who are going to miss a lot of intelligent reading matter unless they send in a check in a hurry.

A three-power naval conference will be held in June at Geneva. When it is over the position of the United States, as far as cruisers are concerned, will be the same far below Great Britain and behind Japan.

An advertisement of forty inches is twice as important to the publisher as an advertisement of twenty inches; but the reason large advertisements pay is that they are twice as important in the estimation of the readers.

Picayune citizens are to be commended for their enterprise and activity in already preparing for their annual peach festival, to which some ten thousand people attended last year. But show us a few peaches at least this year.

HELP YOUR OWN CHILD

Parents are urged to read this article carefully. It contains valuable information regarding the education of children and the importance of parental supervision. The article discusses the various factors that influence a child's development and offers practical advice for parents to ensure their children receive the best possible education and moral training.

LET US REST ON OUR OARS AWHILE

Appearing in this issue of The Echo will be found a legal advertisement, headed "Notice on City Bond Issue." A perusal of same gives the intelligence that the voters of the city of Bay St. Louis will be called upon to cast their vote "Nay" and "Yea," respectively, on the proposition of a bond issue in amount of $5,000, this election to occur on Saturday, April 23rd. The proposed municipal bonds are to bear 6 per cent. per annum, and the money thus realized to defray the cost of the building of a "Fireman Hall" to house the fire equipment of the City of Bay St. Louis.

Without first going into the merits or demerits of the proposition we wish to file our protest against it. The city is now carrying an unusual burden and no better evidence of this is found in the fact that the taxpayers are practically crushed with taxation beyond precedent, and even though the proposed bond issue is small, to add one more cent to our present assessment and rate of taxation would be like the proverbial straw that broke the camel's back. This simile might be home-ly and thread-bare, but nevertheless it fits.

The city had a "fireman's hall" to house its fire equipment, but it was taken down without first knowing where funds were forthcoming to rebuild, and for the want of proper care by the city the building was allowed to fall into a condition of deterioration that in a measure might warrant its removal.

In the meantime, however, the fire equipment is housed and taken care, and for the present, at least, we can easily forego the building of a new fire engine house. The expense is not warranted by the financial condition of the treasury, and unless we practice at least some kind of economy and put some restraint on this apparently indiscriminate issuing of financial paper we are going to strike the rocks.

The Echo hopes every thoughtful citizen voting will exercise their right of franchise on Saturday, April 23rd, and defeat this proposed bond issue. It is time to call a halt. Our people are overburdened; tax-ridden and we may soon expect to see good and valuable citizens forced to pull up stakes and move to other places where less radicalism prevails and more conservatism exists.

True, The Echo favors improvements. But no bigger and better improvement could be made just now for the people of Bay St. Louis than drawing the line and calling a halt. The trouble is too many sit supinely and do not concern themselves about the things until it is too late, and then we must pay piper. And he who will dance certainly must pay.

The remedy is at the polls. The date, Saturday, April 23rd. Citizens, do your duty.

EDITOR DALE WINNING.

Every newspaper editor in the United States is interested in the plight of Geo. R. Dale, the editor, of The Post Democrat, of Muncie, Indiana. For four years he has led a fight against a political clique, which in his opinion, was administering affairs without regard to the rights of the community, as a whole.

Judge Clarence W. Dearth won several skirmishes with the editor. He haled him for contempt of court and in addition he managed, by force, it is said, to stop the sale of his newspaper on the streets. That was some time ago. Since then Dale has fled to Ohio, where he directs his newspaper, declaring that he will not return until Dearth is no longer judge.

The Indiana legislature has at last investigated the fight and the result was impeachment proceedings against Dearth, the first ever instituted in that state. It won't be long, apparently, before Dale can come home and strut his stuff safely.

Crooked politicians fear the press more than any other agency of good government. An editor that cannot be "influenced" is the surest protection that any community can have from the vipers that go into politics for the feathering of their nests. At the same time, it is highly important that newspaper editors everywhere realize the importance of upholding an editor who is unjustly assailed for spreading the truth.

THE NAVY WINS THE OIL.

The unanimous decision of the United States Supreme Court, in the famous Doheny civil case, returns to the United States navy the Elks Hills naval oil reserves. In sweeping language, unhedged by unnecessary politeness, the Court declares that the lease was not only illegal but was obtained by "fraud and corruption."

Maybe, the decision will settle the question in the minds of all citizens. Now Doheny will not only lose the $100,000,000 which he admitted he expected to make out of the transaction, but may also lose sums exceeding $10,000,000 which his companies have spent in developing the project.

The decision of the court will also govern the other pending cases. This means that hereafter corporations dealing with the government must have clean hands. The Supreme Court serves notice that "conspiracy, corruption and fraud" might be able to make advantageous bargains but that they will not be permanent.

CLOSED GARAGES DANGEROUS.

We are not familiar with the exact figures of the deaths caused each year in the United States by carbon monoxide, the deadly gas that often slays motorists, who work on their cars, with the engine running, in a closed garage.

The newspapers record a sufficient number of such fatalities to cause this warning to be flashed to motorists. Be careful when you run your automobile engine in a garage—be sure that there is sufficient ventilation. Otherwise, before you realize it, the deadly fumes will lay you low and your family will wonder how you happened to be so careless.

THE TRUTH MUST BE KNOWN.

Most of us have faith in the willingness of the average citizen to do the right thing when the truth is apparent, but the hardest problem of today is the discovery of the truth.

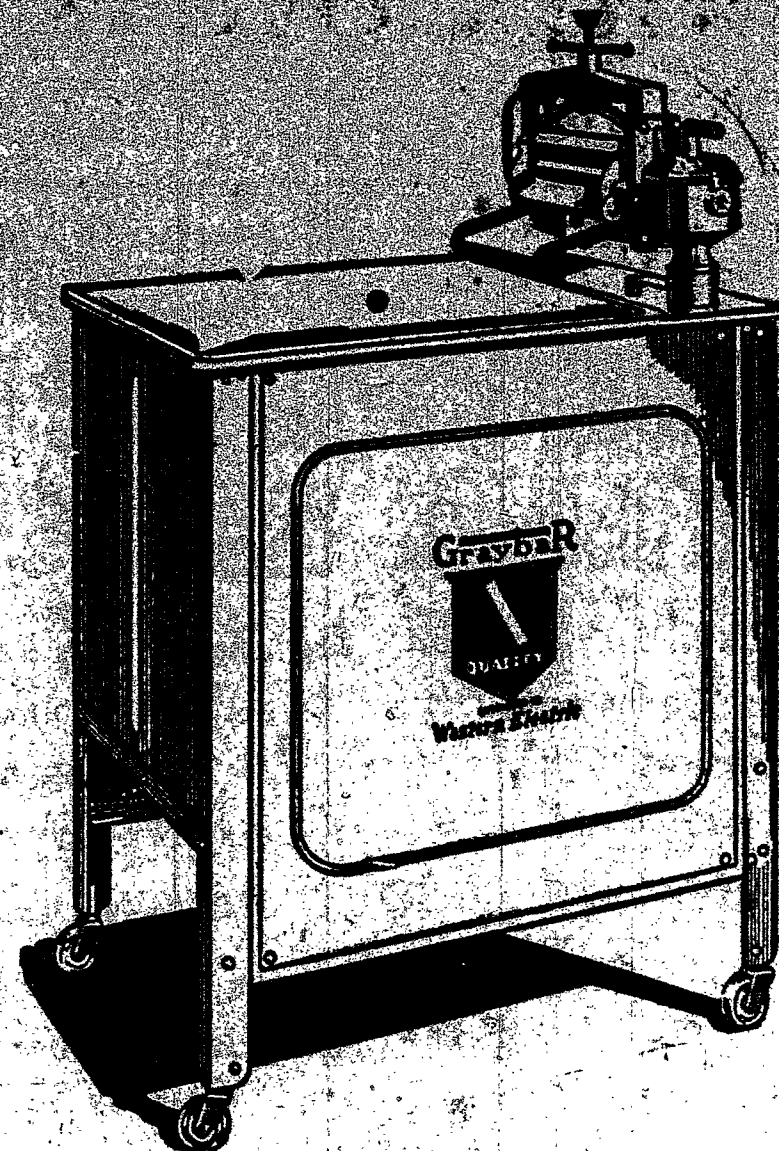

The task is not as much the exposition of the truth to others as it is the search for and acceptance of it by ourselves. Most of us are inclined to believe that we have the right side and that the other man has the wrong. The danger comes from our ready acceptance of accepted truth without seeking to understand the other side.

NO SUICIDE MANIA.

The number of suicides in the country seem to be fully reported. Every time an individual takes his life the world repeats the "suicide mania" role.

Why should this form of journalistic propaganda be indulged in? The purpose of the writer is to point out that the suicide is a tragedy, but it is not a "mania" and should not be treated as such.

CHIEF ALBERT JONES "HATTED" TRIBUTE FROM LOCAL FRIENDS

"Eagle Eye," Popular Gulf Coast Sleuth, Remembered By Friends—Makes the "Old Dutch" Bunch Look Like Pink Lemonade.

The many friends of Chief of Police "Eagle Eye" Jones, the most popular sleuth on the Coast, have come forward en masse and conferred signal honor on him.

It will be remembered that during the recent benefit game of basketball between the Kilt-Fat Fellows and Jones' Eagle Eyes, Captain Jones covered himself with glory by actually— and positively without assistance—caged a field goal from a very difficult angle of the court.

Shortly thereafter the witty chief "Shorley" created the wily chief "Junior" Breath, ascertained that no hat in his stock was large enough for the Eagle-Eye's cranium.

In consternation Junior reported the fact to "Tad" Charlie and the "boys"—with quick action—got busy and determined that the popular chief should have the necessary head gear for the coming heat wave, the faithful wired the hat-makers of Squeedunk, resulting in the arrival of a "sky-high" whose exact dimensions are 23 3/8.

That action of friends is but a small testimonial of their affection for the Chief, whose reputation as a town cleaner makes the "Old Dutch" bunch look like pink lemonade at a bootleggers' convention.

W. B. A. Social Gathering.

The W. B. A. members of this city gathered Wednesday at the K. C. Home in Main street.

Mesdames Bessie Murtagh, Beatrice Favre and Lillian Quereus were hostesses of the evening and a supplementary program of interest was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

Reading—Mrs. Louise Hobbs. Song—Mesdames Bessie Murtagh and Beatrice Favre, accompanied by Miss Lillian Engman.

Music—Miss Eloise Whitfield. Song—Misses Alice Balize, Mary and Amelia Scafide, Veronica Manieri, accompanied by Miss Mary Scafide. Dialogue—Mesdames Bessie Murtagh and Beatrice Favre.

Song, "America"—By Order. The costumes were very comical and excited the laughter of all present.

The distinguished out-of-town guests of the evening were Mrs. Arguella, Miss Florence Arguella and Mrs. Fay Arguella, district deputy of Bloxi, Miss. An open invitation to the following guests and it is hoped to see them again at no distant date.

Miss Miriam Engman, manager and record keeper, was happy to see that the attendance is improving each time, an indication of active interest and the club's success.

Incidentally, it might be stated, delicious chicken sandwiches and salad, pink punch and lemonade of the same inviting color and warmth were served. The next social gathering is anticipated, to occur next month.

Happy Event Cause For Congratulation.

BORN: At the Alvah P. Smith Clinic Hospital, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Smith, on Tuesday morning, March 15, 1927, at 5 a. m.; weight, 8 1/2 pounds.

This fine little fellow, said to be a perfect specimen of baby, with his wealth of dark hair, high forehead and perfect features, is the first born to come into the heart and add happiness to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who reside in Second street, after four years of wedded life, and the fond young parents and their friends are correspondingly happy.

Mr. Smith is in charge of the inotyping department of the Sea Coast Echo, and Carlos James Reid Smith has already been given a place on The Echo staff which it is hoped he will be ready to assume later. For the present he is our Mascot.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are to be congratulated on so happy an occasion, and the paternal grandparents at Florence, Ala., and the maternal grandparents at Gulfport, Miss., are equally to be felicitated as well.

—The recent installation of a centrifugal pump at the city waterworks plant provides for more pressure over the city mains at all times, and a lower rate in the future as a result is promised, so we are told. The pump was installed by the Mississippi Power company and works automatically, thus keeping the water tank always filled. Mayor Blaize and the aldermen, in their gratification over this improvement, saved it means better fire protection, more water for the home and garden, and above all, a constant high pressure at all times, regardless of the keeper or maintainer is present or not. The engine cost approximately $1,000, ordered some time back and will more than pay for itself.

—Chicken Mites? Oh, yes! Sodium Fluoride mixed with Ashes or dust does the work. 25 cents in the price per package. Atlas Drug Store, Phone Four.

—Dr. Ernest Pollock, well-known dentist at New Orleans, this week, through purchase, became the owner of the Jas. H. Black dwelling in Balentine street, and will make Bay St. Louis his family home. Dr. Pollock will not practice in this city but will continue daily to and from New Orleans.

—Captain Ernest W. Drackett, accompanied by J. B. Craig, resident State Highway department attaché, returned a few days since from a motor trip to Kansas and vicinity, where the famous "road" was being built and plans for the future were being made.

—The new heat will be installed in the present building of the State Highway department, which is being moved to the new building on the corner of the old bay street.

FAMILY ROBBERY AND SHOT-FOOTERS ROBBED SAME NIGHT

Dr. A. A. Kergosien, Doctor of Law, Taken From Garage, Car Found Next Morning at Boston Shoe Store Which Was Robbed.

Unknown party or parties entered the premises of Dr. A. A. Kergosien, before 11:30 o'clock Wednesday night and entering the garage where the family touring car, Dodge model, had been put up during the earlier part of the evening and made escape with the car, leaving no clue.

The back seat, however, of the car was found the next morning on the outside of the Boston Shoe Store, owned by August Schiro, corner Main and Second streets, where a supply of shoes and silk-hosiery amounting to several hundred dollars had been stolen.

It was conclusive the car was used to affect the robbery and by the same parties, and the get-away was made out of town. It is generally accepted the job was one by out-of-town parties.

Mr. Schiro did not give out the amount of his loss but it is considerable and the loss somewhat heavy.

On Thursday the car was found abandoned on 17th street, Gulfport, and two young men arrested, one of whom was charged with the robbery of the car. The other was charged with the robbery of the car.

Mr. Schiro returned last evening from Biloxi, where a part of the stolen stock was found in a room, along with other booty from elsewhere that was reported stolen previously from other parties.

BAY GIRL CHAMPIONS' GUESTS OF ROTARY CLUB WEDNESDAY

Guests For Regular Weekly Luncheon—Club Presents Souvenir—Jos. O. Mauffray Gives Presentation Address.

On Wednesday night the Bay St. Louis Rotary club, Dr. C. M. Shipp, president, was host to young ladies, guests who won first laurels in the recent Gulf Coast basketball tournament, representing the Bay Hi school.

It was "Better Business Methods" for the girls, about as equal time to the entertainment of their fair guests. A souvenir of the evening was presented to each guest, Jos. O. Mauffray, delegated by the chair to make the presentation remarks, and Dr. J. A. Evans delivered the favors to each individually. Mr. Mauffray's remarks were clever and apropos.

The guests honored were Ursula Prados, Mary Elba Marshall, Helen Chapman Lees, Erwin Mary Blau, Hona Ansley, Katie Watts, Marion Saucier, Miriam Summersgill, Laurin Cox, Virginia Chapman, Norma Cox, Ruby Almain, Barbara Sheik, Marie Adams, Yvonne Tremoulet, Imelda Ramond, Supt. S. J. Ingram, coach, was also remembered.

The program by the young ladies included a few remarks by the captain, Miss Virginia Chapman; reading by Miss Laura Cox and also by Marie Adams, Yvonne Tremoulet, Imelda Ramond, Supt. S. J. Ingram, coach, was also remembered.

Leo W. Seal, chairman of "Better Business Methods" committee, presided in his usual happy and successful style.

Celebrate Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mauffray, now residing at Pass Christian, natives of Hancock county and practically all long residents of Fenton and Kiln vicinity, will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary tomorrow, Sunday, the 20th. The celebration will be informal and quiet, only the immediate members of the family present at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. O. Mauffray, of Bay St. Louis, left last night for the parental rook, where they will spend the week-end and participate in the observance of the unusual occasion.

Building Ordered Taken Away.

At the regular March meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, order was unanimously adopted whereby the building on city property, at the head of Carroll avenue, must be taken down and material removed within 30 days. This building was placed there for office use by Contractor A. B. Smith, who had at that time the contract for building the bi-city bridge over Bay St. Louis. There being no further public use for the building, and private property on public land, its removal is officially ordered.
